1991 LR08	Living wage	Does the standard require paying wages sufficient to meet basic needs of the worker and his or her family (living wage)?	Living wage is defined by the wage that can meet the basic needs to maintain a safe, decent standard of living within the community. Basic needs include housing, nutrition, transport, health care and savings. Currently, there is no internationally accepted way of calculating or defining a living wage. This criterion therefore rather looks at a standards intention to pay wages that are enough to pay for a decent standard of living and recognizes those standards that use and thereby actively promote the living wage concept. Explicit reference needed. It needs to be ensured that a living wage is not only granted on paper but that it is effectively paid. This means that i.e. no fees are levied that have the purpose to reduce the actual payment and are used as an indirect way to transfer money back to the employer (German: "Lohnsicherung").
